

Retiree First

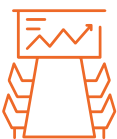

Challenge

As Retiree First expanded, their existing office space struggled to meet the evolving needs of their growing workforce. Their key concerns included:

Limited collaboration spaces for teams

Outdated executive offices and boardrooms lacking modern functionality

Inefficient workstation layout, limiting productivity and comfort

Retiree First is a leading healthcare solutions provider focused on supporting retirees with tailored healthcare plans and administrative services. With a mission to enhance the retiree experience, they serve thousands of clients across various industries, providing expert guidance on post-retirement healthcare benefits. As the company grew, so did their need for an updated, efficient, and collaborative workspace to reflect their commitment to innovation and employee well-being.

Solution

Boomerang Office Furniture partnered with Retiree First to redesign their office space with efficiency, aesthetics, and employee satisfaction in mind. Here's what we delivered:

Café Table Installation

We introduced a modern café table setup to encourage collaboration and provide employees with a relaxing space to recharge. Studies show that break areas like these can increase productivity by up to 15% by encouraging informal team discussions and mental breaks.

Executive Office and Boardroom Upgrades

- Updated executive offices with ergonomic furniture, boosting comfort and productivity for senior leadership.
- Redesigned boardrooms with advanced modular tables and integrated tech capabilities, cutting meeting setup time by 30%.

Workstation Expansion:

- Added 15 new ergonomic workstations designed to optimize focus and minimize distractions.
- Reorganized office layout to increase floor space efficiency by 25%, fostering a more collaborative and open work environment.

Conclusion

By partnering with Boomerang Office Furniture, Retiree First now enjoys a modern, efficient, and welcoming workspace that reflects their values and commitment to innovation. The improved environment has not only boosted productivity but also enhanced employee satisfaction—creating a workplace where their team feels motivated and supported.
