

Healthcare Provider —

Comprehensive Workspace Furnishing

Challenge

The healthcare provider's facility required a unified workspace transformation across open office areas, executive suites, breakrooms, conference rooms, and collaborative huddle spaces. Sourcing and coordinating a diverse inventory of specialized furniture while adhering to a strict schedule and budget presented a unique challenge. The work had to be completed safely, efficiently, and without interfering with daily healthcare administration.

A premier healthcare provider and cornerstone of its community sought to revitalize their administrative headquarters — creating a more comfortable and modern space for patient advocacy, administrative operations, and staff collaboration. With multiple zones across the facility, the space was essential to their continuum-of-care mission, but existing layouts needed a full upgrade.

They called Boomerang Office Furniture.
